

H.H. Sheikh Hamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan

Chairman of Abu Dhabi Crown Prince's Court

HH Sheikh Hamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan is Chairman of the Crown Prince Court, Emirate of Abu Dhabi and a member of the Executive Council, Emirate of Abu Dhabi. HH Sheikh Hamed has a degree in Economics from Emirates University, and a Masters in Petroleum Political Economics from the University of Wales, UK.

HH Sheikh Hamed previously held key posts in Abu Dhabi including serving as Chairman for the Department for Economic Development, Chairman of the Executive Council Executive Sub-Committee, Chairman of the Higher Corporation for Specialized Economic Zones, Chairman of the General Holding Company, Deputy Chairman of Abu Dhabi Council for Economic Development, Chairman of the Health Authority, and as Deputy Chairman of Abu Dhabi Food Control Authority.

In addition to his duties, HH Sheikh Hamed serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors of Al Etihad Airways, Managing Director of Abu Dhabi Investment Authority, Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees at Khalifa University of Science, Technology and Research, as Member of the Petroleum Higher Council, and as a member of Abu Dhabi Investment Council.

Executive Council appointment dates and details:

- Amiri Decree No. (10) dated 23 April 2001 for appointment as member of the Executive Council.
- Presidential Decree issued on 17 December 2006 for appointment as Chairman of the Crown Prince Court, Emirate of Abu Dhabi.

