

Mohammed bin Zayed issues a Resolution establishing Abu Dhabi technical and vocational education training centre

H.H General Sheikh Mohammed bin Zayed Al Nahyan , Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi , Deputy Supreme Commander of the Armed Forces and Chairman of the Executive Council issued the Resolution No. (49) of 2010 concerning the establishment of Abu Dhabi technical and vocational education training center.

The Resolution stated that establishment of "Abu Dhabi technical and vocational education training centre". The centre shall assume the supervision of technical and vocational education training in the Emirate, and affiliates the Executive Council financially and administratively.

The Centre aims to enhance the opportunities and diversification of technical and vocational education training within the legal system applicable in the Emirate ,for this sake the centre may, in coordination with the concerned entities in the emirate, plan, formulate strategies and policies pertaining, technical and vocational education training, and submit the same to the Executive Council for approval. The center shall enhance the advancement of the technical and vocational education training sector to match the outstanding status of the Emirate in coordination with concerned entities ,and lay down human resources management strategy, recruitment and staff development in education and training sector in the emirate in addition to laying down terms and standards of supervision and licensing for all technical and vocational education training entities and submitting the same for the Executive Council for approval , and the preparation of the licensing system for the trainers working in the field of technical And vocational education training for all entities and its application after being approved by the Executive Council.

The center also aims to prepare human resources trained technicians , and habilitating of trainees technically and professionally in technical and vocational education training in accordance with the requirements of the labor market ,conduct and apply of applied researches and establish a database of technical and vocational education training, provide consultation, education services and training bodies, public and private institutions in the Emirate in coordination with the concerned entities and granting of certificates of education and training in accordance with regulations and educational qualifications, applicable in the Emirate in coordination with Abu Dhabi Education Council ,holding conferences, seminars and courses related to education and training in coordination with concerned entities, and developing strategic partnerships with government bodies and institutions , the private sector and , educational institutions and training.